West Yorkshire Adult Work-Based Learning Awards 2010

The West Yorkshire Lifelong Learning Network is delighted to announce the 3rd annual West Yorkshire Adult Work-Based Learning Awards.

These awards recognise the achievements of employees who have succeeded in progressing onto a higher education course while continuing to work.

There are also awards to recognise employers and tutors who have offered inspiration and encouragement to learners.

We are looking for nominees who deserve special recognition for their achievements and whose experiences might inspire others to progress onto higher level courses.

Do you or does someone you know deserve to be nominated for these awards?

Learner Awards:

There are at least 7 learner awards in total, relating to different industry sectors (7 winners and highly commended nominees in categories where the quality of nominations is particularly high)
